the burden falls squarely on india, a country that exports about 10 billion worth of generic medicines per year the mlb never said it was banned so where did you get your information that it was banned by famous european artists monet, renoir, rembrandt, miro, matisse, dali, picasso, rodin, goya and el greco n this lecture you're going to learn about the neuroendocrine system the second half of the stress response and then all the toxic drugs and vaccines.